New Year Celebration 's

Campus was abuzz with joy as all came together to celebrate the New Year. Joy was filled in the air as the students enjoyed a delightful dinner, marveled at a spectacular fireworks display and symbolically bid farewell to the old by burning representations of negativity.

The evening culminated with the hopeful act of pinning resolutions to a communal board, fostering a sense of unity and optimism for the year ahead

Gratitude Program

A gratitude program was organized for the campus substaff, expressing appreciation for their dedicated work through a heartfelt felicitation, acknowledging those who contribute tirelessly each day.

Laxmi Homam

Every month, as the first thursday unfurls its dawn, a reverent hush descends upon the campus. The students & staff gather with hearts attuned & minds refreshed to attend Laxmi Homam.

With the wisdom & knowledge of Maha Laxmi, students embark on a journey of introspection. The homam was graced by Sri Gutta Ravi & family from Siddipet.

Guest's Visit

Our campus is open for cherished guests. We were honored to welcome many like minded individuals to our college, who brought immense knowledge and insights during their visits. They expressed their joy to see such a holistic education given to rural children and admiration for our commitment to women empowerment. The disciplined and organized nature of our students stood out, reflecting our institutional values. They appreciated the tranquil, lush greenery, creating an ideal ambience for students growth. They expressed their joy to be a part of this great cause of education at rural geographies, especially for girl child empowerment.

National Youth Day

January 12th, India marks National Youth Day, commemorating the birth anniversary of influential spiritual leader. He advocated for accessible education, particularly for the common people, famously urging the youth to "Arise! Awake! and stop not until the goal is reached

Students eloquently delivered talks and recited impactful slogans reflecting the wisdom of Swami Vivekananda. Accompanied by insightful discussions from elders emphasizing the significance of National Youth Day, the event became a poignant tribute to Swami Vivekananda's dedicated service to the nation. The memorable occasion left a lasting impression on the minds of students, fostering a deep appreciation for the ideals and contributions of this visionary leader.

Sankranti Delight: A Festival of Joy

In observance of the Sankranti festival, students engaged in traditional pooja rituals, performed the vibrant Bhogi celebration, showcased their cultural spirit through lively dance performances, and eloquently spoke about the profound significance of the auspicious day.

The festivities captured the essence of Sankranti, blending religious observances with joyous expressions of cultural heritage. Sankranti is also a time to express gratitude for the bountiful harvest and invoke blessings for a prosperous agricultural season ahead.

Para Vidya Exhibition

As a part of their Paravidya studies, students recently organized an insightful exhibition to showcase their profound understanding of the subject. The exhibition featured thoughtfully crafted models, with a central focus on the Dharmakshetra and Kurukshetra, where Krishna imparted his teachings to Arjuna. A highlight of the exhibition was the presentation of a detailed Guru Lineage Chart, illustrating the spiritual succession of teachers and the profound significance of passing down wisdom through generations..

Students emphasized the importance of continuing this tradition by spreading the teachings of the Bhagavad Gita to every household.

The models and presentations collectively conveyed the essence of Paravidya studies, showcasing not only a deep comprehension of the subject matter but also a commitment to preserving and sharing the timeless wisdom encapsulated in the teachings of Krishna

Sports Day

During the 2024 sports meet held at Muddenahalli, student's from all 28 campuses affiliated with the Loka Seva Gurukulam group of institutions gathered to showcase their talents through sports competitions, a march past, and cultural presentations. Among the highlights was a demonstration by girls, who exhibited their skills in the Silambam self-defense technique using sticks.

The self-defense technique using sticks, such as Silambam, is a martial art form that empowers individuals, particularly girls, with practical skills to protect themselves. Silambam, originating from South India, involves the use of a long stick or staff as a weapon.

Sri Sathya Sai Prashanthi Nikethanam Kondapaka Campus with the blessings of Sadguru, bagged many individual prizes and a Big trophy was given for their active participation. Poverty is not just a lack of money, it's a lack of opportunities. It's Sadguru's vision to give every child an opportunity to grow and transform into a wonderful person.

Ram mandir Prana Prathishtapana

20th Jan 2024 marked the divine occasion of Ayodhya Ram mandir Prana Prathishtapana. This occasion invited the convergence of all divine personalities. Our dearest Sadguru Sri Madhusudan Sai was also invited for the occasion.

All the students of Sathya Sai loka seva gurukulam institutions witnessed this great divine occasion through the live stream. Children also received the blessing of Rama Akshatha at the campus.

We might not have participated in building Rama's temple. But we all are so privileged for being a part of building Rama rajya where love rules the entire world

REPUBLIC DAY

The 75th Republic Day celebration at the college commenced with a spirited march parade, followed by the solemn hoisting of the national flag and the collective rendition of the national anthem. The event featured enlightening talks by the Chairperson and a dedicated staff member, emphasizing the significance of the occasion and the duty to serve the motherland

To add a touch of cultural resonance, the college choir delivered soulful renditions of patriotic songs, filling the air with a sense of national pride and unity. The entire celebration was a poignant reminder of the importance of patriotism and collective responsibility in contributing to the progress and well-being of our nation

Harmony at Home, Success at College: Parents Meet

The campus organized a parents' meet dedicated to the 12th-grade students, creating an atmosphere filled with joy as the happy faces of both students and parents permeated the air. Parents cherished quality time spent with their children, and a curated program showcased the students' learnings during their time in the institution. The campus administration extended a warm welcome to the parents, providing detailed insights into the various opportunities awaiting students in the upcoming undergraduate courses

As part of the program, students presented a captivating dance drama highlighting the three core verticals of education, healthcare, and nutrition.

The event also featured a heartfelt talk by one of the parents expressing gratitude for the invaluable gift of education and the opportunities provided to the students. The overall ambiance reflected the positive collaboration between the institution, students, and parents, fostering a sense of appreciation for the shared journey of learning and growth.
